A Hopefully Haven for Creativity
The Peabody Performing Arts Center opened this week with a boost from billionaires and a message of resilience.

By Julia Jacobs
September 16, 2023
Celebrating A Haven For Creativity

"When the project started, the concept was a sketch on a napkin," said Mr. Kornfeld. "This was a plan to construct a temporary structure, to be used for various performances and events." He added that the building, designed by the architecture firm Kohn Pedersen Fox Associates, would be a "transformational" space for the community.

"This is a very special site, where so much love and dedication took place. The arts will bring a special sense of life for the future."